

The Worshipful Company of Fletchers

Agincourt 600 Commemorative Mug

The Worshipful Company of Fletchers, one of the ancient Livery Companies of the City of London, and responsible for the trade of Arrow Making since 1371, is pleased to offer a collectable Mug commemorating the 600th anniversary of the battle of Agincourt.

Produced in a strictly limited edition of 600, the Mug will carry the Coat of Arms of the Fletchers Company on one side and those of Agincourt with the Agincourt 600 badge on the other side. There are also three arrows on the inside of the Mug and a brief history of the Fletchers' Company on the base. Proceeds from the sale will go to the Fletchers' Company and the Fletchers' Charitable Trust, which principally supports Archery for the Disabled, from grass roots up to support for Paralympic archery.

Each mug which is 3 ½ inches (90mm) high similar to the picture shown, will come with a numbered certificate signed by the Master Fletcher. Mugs are individually £20, or can be purchased in sets of four for £65. This includes standard UK postage and packing. Purchasers from overseas will be asked to pay any incremental postage and packing costs.

Expressions of interest or orders by e-mail to the Fletchers' Company care of agincourt mug@fletchers.org.uk, or by post to 17, Prince Consort Drive, Ascot, Berkshire, SL5 8AW. Cheques made payable to The Worshipful Company of Fletchers. Bank details for direct transfer will be sent on request.

