

The City of London Freeman's Guide

Now available in hard back and paper back versions

Published by the Worshipful Company of Information Technologists

Following almost two years of research, development and reviews The City of London Freeman's Guide is now available for purchase in hard back and paper back and from Amazon in eBook format for Kindle and other tablet devices / smartphones. With a Foreword by the Master and Wardens of the Information Technologists' Company, all proceeds during the first year of publication will go to the Company's charitable funds.

The City of London Freeman's Guide is a concise almanac and guidebook to the Freedom, Livery and the City of London's ancient offices, ceremonies and customs. However the guide is no dry history book, rather it signposts the civic, ceremonial and social aspects of the City as they are to be found today - providing the key to a treasure chest of knowledge and experience for all Freemen of the City of London.

Ever wanted to stay overnight in a Livery Hall, attend the Ceremony of the Quit Rents, Drive sheep across London Bridge, visit the Court of Chivalry, find out if your ancestor was a Freeman of a Livery Company in medieval times, or simply enjoy a curry lunch on HQS Wellington? These and hundreds of other facts associated with the City, Livery and Freedom in modern times are to be found in this handy guidebook.

The Kindle version is priced at £5.15 (inclusive of VAT and free wifi download). iPad/iPhone users will be pleased to know that a version in Apple iBook format will be available by the 2nd week in February, alternatively there is a free and easy to use Kindle emulator application for iPhone/iPad available when downloading the book from Amazon.

The hard back and paper back versions may be previewed and ordered online for delivery by Royal Mail (discounts for quantity orders) from Blurb.

Paul D Jagger MSc PgDMS CIPF FBCS: T 44 (0) 1462 641 454 : M 44 (0) 7534 008 322

Liveryman of the Worshipful Company of Information Technologists

The 100th livery company of the great and famous City of London

Follow me on twitter @CityandLivery for history, law, lore and customs of the great and famous City of London and its diverse ancient and modern Livery Companies or search for hash tags #LiveryFact, #CityFact and #HeraldryFact

'Logic has its limits and the position of the City lies outside them' - 1957 Royal Commission into Local Government