

KNOWLEDGE OF THE CITY – Series 42

“Walks and Talks - About the City, in the City, and by City Guides”

Venue: St Bride Foundation, Bride Lane, off Fleet Street, London EC4Y 8EQ
There is step free access via Salisbury Court, off Fleet Street

Dates: Thursday 6th, 13th, 20th, 27th October 2016

Time: 6.30pm to 8pm

Cost: £10 per talk or £36 for the series of 4 talks.
For a couple attending the whole series, the second person pays half price, making £54 for two
Student guides or newly qualified guides (2015 or 2016) pay half price for the series, making £18

Talks

6 th October	History and Functions of Trinity House – General Lighthouse Authority for Britain and Ireland	Geoff Boyd
13 th October	City of London Police	Warren Grynberg
20 th October	From Pillar to Post: London’s Postal History	John Morgan
27 th October	Catholics in the City	Colin Davey

Walks There will be an optional walk or visit linked with some of the talks.
You are welcome to join the walks/visits even if you do not go to the talks.

Booking

Eventbrite	http://www.eventbrite.com/e/knowledge-of-the-city-series-42-tickets-27280283061
Cheque	Please send cheque made payable to “Down Memory Lane” to: Down Memory Lane, 2 Violet Road, London E18 1DG Please include your email address
Bank transfer	Please contact Debbie Pearson for details
Cash	We will accept cash on the night if there is space in the venue

Enquiries Debbie Pearson on phone: 07752 288367 or email: debbie.guide@btopenworld.com

Knowledge of the City is organised by City of London Guides: Debbie Pearson & Kathryn Prevezer.
All the lecturers are qualified City of London Guides. www.knowledgeofthecity.com